Parents' Code of Conduct

"When baseball is no longer fun, it's no longer a game." Joe DiMaggio

Wilshire Warriors PONY Baseball is a league where boys and girls can have fun and learn to play the game. By being on a Wilshire Warriors PONY Baseball team, players, coaches and parents all agree to strive toward fostering a positive environment for all to enjoy. As such, all Wilshire Warriors PONY Baseball participants agree to be held accountable to uphold our Code of Conduct.

Parents' Code of Conduct

- I will show support through positive cheering for my child's team and demonstrate respect for members of each team, the coaches and umpires.
- I will let the coaches do their jobs and refrain from interfering with their instructions and communications to their players before, during and after all games and practices.
- I will recognize that baseball is a game through which Wilshire Warriors PONY Baseball league's intent is to build character, foster good sportsmanship and teach boys and girls the fundamentals of baseball with an ultimate goal of having fun.
- I will demonstrate good parenting by refraining from inappropriate language and behavior at all games and practices.
- I will respect the City of Los Angeles's strong ordinances against smoking and consuming alcohol in and near all city parks.
- I will help Wilshire Warriors PONY Baseball keep its facilities and park clean by taking responsibility for my family's garbage.
- I will respect parking spaces reserved for Dept. of Recreation & Parks staff, disabled, and emergency personnel by parking only in appropriate parking spaces at all times.
- I will take responsibility for my guests invited to enjoy Wilshire Warriors PONY Baseball games and ensure that they understand and respect this code of conduct.
- I am clear about Wilshire Warriors PONY Baseball rules and obligations to suspend and consider additional disciplinary actions against any parent, player or coach that has been ejected from a game.
